Fantastic Two's Space Enquiry

Fantastic Two's has been designed to support; parent's understanding of child development and well being, provide parents ideas to develop the home learning environment, support children's development and help support the transition to nursery.

If you wish to attend these sessions (or are a professional working with a family you feel may benefit) please complete the below enquiry form. All information will be treated confidentially.

Please note: Due to limited spaces, places will be allocated based on level of need and children's centre target criteria (copies of target criteria available on request) and availability of the session. Your space will be confirmed via telephone no later than the Friday before the session commences. You will be given a card stating which session you have been allocated and for what term. If you are not allocated a space you will be placed on the reserve list and contacted if a space becomes available. Depending on the information below we may need to contact you for further details to ensure we are able to provide the correct level off support.
